I'm sorry I'm just frustrated with this whole situation I don't mean to be short with you, you have been extremely helpful. But Bank of America is sending me my unemployment transactions all the way back till April and they are also sending Stephon's but his was the PUA unemployment so he got paid one lump sum in June for $9,985 so all that should be more than enough proof that the money was legal. I won't have the transcripts till after Monday because it takes 2 business days to email it to me. Again thank you and I'm sorry

My paycheck stubs show I made all that I'm sorry this is so frustrating because that's my unemployment and from my job. Let try to see if unemployment can send me something, I'm showing that I make that and I did make it that is my money I work so hard. I will see what I can get but honestly I don't know just give a cple days please

Hi Jessica:

My attorney has reviewed all the emails you sent in with your proof of income. While the majority of proof shows the unemployment funds being deposited to your account, we need more information of the withdrawals from your account to correlate with the cash seized. We see approximately 3 withdrawals of $600.00 around July, however, that $1,800.00 does not account for the total amount seized of $4,450.00.

Can you provide proof of the other amounts withdrawn from your account to account for that sum of money?

Thank you,

Jessica Anaya
